If the bill is passed it may lead to: Billions of Kenyan shillings are lost due to fraud in the real estate sector leaving a trail of disgruntled investors/purchasers with little to no recourse. This is due to lapses in the system to adequately protect consumers from unscrupulous developers who run briefcase companies and lack of implementation of the Estate Agents Act CAP 533. It is laudable that Parliament has taken steps to protect the consumers against such rogue developers and land selling companies. There are however a few concerns as the Bill seems to go beyond the regulation of developers and extend to the practice of estate agency as a trade.
