THE BUSINESS LAWS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2024

A Bill for

AN ACT of Parliament to amend various laws and to make amendments to laws related to financial institutions; and for connected purposes

ENACTED by the Parliament of Kenya as follows—

1. This Act may be cited as Business Laws (Amendment) Act, 2024.

Short title.

2. The Banking Act is amended—

Amendment of section 55 of Cap. 488.

(a) in section 55 by deleting subsection (2) and substituting therefor the following new subsection—

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Central Bank may, in regulations, prescribe penalties to be paid by institutions, credit reference bureaus or any other person that fails or refuses to comply with any provision of this Act, Prudential Guidelines or any direction issued by the Central Bank under the Act or Prudential Guidelines.

(b) by adding the following new subsections after subsection (2)—

(3) The penalties prescribed under subsection (2) shall not exceed twenty million shillings in the case of an institution or credit reference bureau, or three times the gross amount of the monetary gain made or loss avoided by the failure or refusal to comply whichever is higher; and three million shillings in the case of a corporate entity and one million shillings in the case of a natural person.

(4) The Central Bank may, in regulations, prescribe additional penalties not exceeding one hundred thousand shillings in each case for each day or part thereof during which such failure or refusal continues.

3. The Second Schedule to the Banking Act is amended by deleting paragraph (d) and substituting therefor the following new paragraph—

Amendment of the Second Schedule to Cap. 488.

(d) a core capital of at least ten billion Kenya shillings in the case of a bank or a mortgage finance company:

Provided that the provisions of this paragraph shall apply in accordance with the following table—

(2) The Cabinet Secretary may, by notice in the Gazette, exempt a certain category of users from the payment of fees prescribed under this Act.

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Business Laws (Amendment) Bill, 2024 seeks to make various amendments to various statutes.

Clause 1 of the Bill provides for the short title of the Bill.

Clause 2 of the Bill proposes to amend section 55(2) of the Banking Act to provide for penalties against institutions, credit reference bureaus or any other person who fails or refuses to comply with any provision of the Act, Prudential Guidelines and directions issued by the Central Bank under the Act or Prudential Guidelines.

Clause 3 of the Bill proposes to amend the Second Schedule to the Banking Act to provide for progressive increase of the minimum core capital requirements for banks and mortgage institutions to enhance banking sector stability to attract global players.

Clause 4 of the Bill proposes to amend section 2 of the Central Bank Act by deleting definitions relating to digital credit business and inserting new definitions which are broader, and which cover all kinds of non-deposit-taking credit providers thereby addressing the perceived limitation in the interpretation and coverage of the definitions “digital credit” and “digital credit provider”. The new definitions also clarify that certain credit businesses such as buy now pay later credit services and peer to peer lending and asset financing are covered under the law, thereby addressing the uncertainty that has existed since the law came into force.

Clause 5 of the Bill proposes to amend section 4A of the Central Bank Act to widen the scope of credit providers to empower the Central Bank of Kenya to license and supervise non-deposit-taking credit providers not regulated under any written law.

Clause 6 of the Bill proposes to amend the heading to Part VIC of the Central Bank Act to expand the scope of the Part to regulation of non-deposit-taking credit providers.

Clause 7 of the Bill proposes to amend section 33R of the Central Bank Act to expand the scope of the provision to non-deposit-taking credit providers. Further, it seeks to empower the Central Bank of Kenya to issue an enforceable Code of Conduct to guide non-deposit-taking credit providers in conducting their business.

Clause 8 of the Bill proposes to amend section 33S of the Central Bank Act to require all non-deposit-taking credit providers to be licensed to carry on business and to prohibit people from carrying on non-deposit-taking credit business illegally.

Clause 9 of the Bill proposes to insert a new Part VID to make provisions on regulation by the Central Bank of credit guarantee companies.

Clause 10 of the Bill proposes to amend section 43 of the Central Bank Act to obligate non-deposit-taking credit providers to furnish the Central Bank of Kenya with any information as the Central Bank of Kenya may require for the proper discharge of its functions.

Clause 11 of the Bill proposes to amend section 57 of the Central Bank Act to empower the Central Bank of Kenya to make regulations prescribing licensing requirements for non-deposit-taking credit businesses.

Clause 12 of the Bill proposes to amend section 59 of the Central Bank Act to provide a transitional period of five years for the commencement of the registration and licensing of credit guarantee companies.

Clause 13 of the Bill proposes to amend section 2 of the Microfinance Act in the definition “non-deposit-taking microfinance business” to mean a non-microfinance bank business which involves the provision of physical credit to clarify the nature of the business.

Clause 14 of the Bill proposes to amend section 3 of the Microfinance Act to provide for the Cabinet Secretary to make regulations on exemption of any non-deposit-taking microfinance business from the application of the Act to take into cognizance special circumstances. Further, the Bill clarifies that the exemption shall not be granted to a non-deposit-taking microfinance business whose annual revenue exceeds five hundred thousand shillings.

Clause 15 of the Bill proposes to insert a new provision to provide for the qualifications for carrying out non-deposit-taking microfinance business to fill a lacuna in the Act.

Clause 16 of the Bill proposes to amend section 5 of the Microfinance Act to provide for the requirement of a non-deposit-taking microfinance business to apply for a license to carry out business in order to regulate it.

Clause 17 of the Bill proposes to amend section 9 of the Microfinance Act to provide for revocation of a license for non-deposit-taking microfinance business where the licensee ceases to carry on the business.

Clause 18 of the Bill proposes to amend section 16 of the Microfinance Act to provide for a person to apply to a non-deposit-taking microfinance business for a loan or credit facility. The Act only provides this for an institution which means a microfinance bank licensed under the Act.

Clause 19 of the Bill proposes to insert new provisions to the Microfinance Act on consumer protection for borrowers from a non-deposit-taking microfinance business and transitional mechanisms. The consumer protection measures include furnishing borrowers with accurate information on the procedure and conditions for micro-lending; informing borrowers, prior to the acquisition of a micro-loan, of the financial costs associated with the procurement and servicing of that micro-loan to be met by the borrower; maintaining confidentiality of information relating to borrowers; and informing borrowers of the rights and duties associated with the acquisition of micro-loans. The measures seek to protect borrowers from predatory lending.

Clause 20 of the Bill seeks to amend the Standards Act by providing for the registration of manufacturers by the Kenya Bureau of Standards.

Clause 21 seeks to amend the Standards Act by providing for the payment and disbursement of the standard levy order from the Bureau account.

Clause 22 of the Bill seeks to insert as new section 10D in the Standards Act to provide for the Standards to be met by manufacturers.

Clause 23 of the Bill seeks to amend section 12 of the Standards Act to provide for compliance with sampling and information requirements by manufacturers, importers, stockers, distributors, sellers and exhibitors.

Clause 24 of the Bill seeks to insert new sections after section 12 of the Standards Act to provide for the establishment and designation of laboratories and establishment of calibration facilities by the Kenya Bureau of Standards.

Clause 25 of the Bill seeks to amend the Standards Act to provide for the appointment of inspection bodies in the country of origin of goods to undertake verification of conformity to Kenya Standards and to require the inspection bodies to have a tax presence in Kenya.

Clause 26 of the Bill seeks to amend section 10 of the Kenya Accreditation Service Act to provide for the Accreditation of foreign Conformity Assessment Bodies operating in Kenya.

Clause 27 of the Bill seeks to insert a new section 12A in the Kenya Accreditation Service Act to provide for the imposition of the accreditation levy.

Clause 28 of the Bill seeks to amend section 4 of the Scrap Metal Act to amend the composition of the Scrap Metal Council.

Clause 29 of the Bill seeks to amend section 2 of the Special Economic Zones Act to provide for a new definition of business process outsourcing.

Clause 30 of the Bill seeks to amend section 4 of the Special Economic Zones Act by inserting a new subsection (4) (2) (b) to give the Cabinet Secretary the authority to set the minimum acreage of land to be considered for declaration as a Special Economic Zone.

Clause 31 of the Bill seeks to insert a new subsection (5) in section 8 of the Special Economic Zones Act to provide that sold goods that remains within a customs-controlled area of a special economic zone are not entitled to the benefits conferred under the Act.

Clause 32 of the Bill seeks to amend section 11 of the Special Economic Zones Act to give the Special Economic Zones Authority the power to determine the minimum investment value and minimum land size.

Clause 33 of the Bill seeks to amend section 28 of the Special Economic Zones Act to enable public entities to qualify as special economic zone developers and operators.

Clause 34 of the Bill proposes to insert a new Section 30A of the Special Economic Zones Act to provide for the issuance of Special Economic Zone Business Service Permit.

Clause 35 of the Bill seeks to amend section 33 of the Special Economic Zones Act to provide for the lease, sub-lease or sale of land or buildings to special economic zone service permit holders.

Clause 36 of the Bill seeks to amend section 35 (1) of the Special Economic Zones act by introducing a third schedule on the incentives and tax benefits that will be granted to a special economic zone developer operator or enterprise.

Clause 37 of the Bill seeks to amend section 6 of the Kenya Industrial Research and Development Institute Act to provide for further functions of the Institute to include buying, selling or taking patent rights in inventions and undertaking marketing research, technological and innovative products.

Clause 38 of the Bill seeks to amend section 11 of the National Electronic Single Window System Act by granting the Cabinet Secretary the power to exempt certain category of users from the payment of fees prescribed under the Act.

Statement on the delegation of legislative powers and limitation of fundamental rights and freedoms

The Bill does not limit any fundamental rights or freedoms.

Statement on whether the Bill concerns county governments

The Bill does not contain provisions concerning county governments within the meaning of Article 110 of the Constitution and the Fourth Schedule to the Constitution and is therefore not a Bill concerning county governments.

Statement as to whether the Bill is a money Bill within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution

The Bill may occasion additional expenditure of public funds and is therefore a money Bill within the meaning of Article 114 of the Constitution.

Dated the 31st October, 2024.

KIMANI ICHUNG'WAH,
Leader of Majority Party.
